

Classroom Management

Supporting Positive Classroom and School Cultures Through Relationship, Respect and Responsibility

March 29-30, 2010
Eamer Auditorium, STF Building
2317 Arlington Avenue, Saskatoon

This interactive workshop, hosted by SPDU, will look at ways to create and maintain a positive culture in individual classrooms and throughout a school.

In the workshop participants will:

- Explore structures, strategies and activities that support the “3 Rs” (Relationships, Respect and Responsibility) and foster a community-of-learners atmosphere.
- Evaluate and practice interventions that deal with disruptive behaviour as teaching and learning opportunities,
- Examine strategies to help students learn to manage conflict.
- Investigate ways to handle teasing and harassment.

For further information about the workshop please contact SPDU at 1-800-667-7762 or 373-1660 in Saskatoon. Register online at www.spdu.ca or by fax at (306) 374-1122

Please register by March 15, 2010

Cost: $189.00 (includes GST)
