May 11, 2010
Eamer Auditorium
STF Building
Saskatoon, SK

What are You Wondering?

Inquiry is a powerful instructional approach that when used by teachers contains significant opportunities for increasing student engagement, insight, and depth of understanding.

Participants will be immersed in an inquiry process and have an opportunity to apply their insights to planning for teaching and learning. Participants will be actively engaged in identifying and exploring issues of relevance to them.

Outcomes:

- Participants will increase their understanding of inquiry learning as it relates to the renewed Saskatchewan curricula.
- Participants will explore and apply the elements of an inquiry framework to guide teaching and learning.
- Participants will assemble a repertoire of strategies and tactics linked to the stages of inquiry.

Participants will explore strategies within the inquiry model covering:

- Setting the Context
 - Wondering and questioning
 - Presenting problems
 - Introducing issues
- Investigating
 - Gathering, critiquing, analyzing and interpreting information
 - Posing questions
- Knowledge Building
 - Connecting to prior knowledge
 - Exploring new ideas
 - Integrating and connecting
- Sharing Understanding
 - Explaining and applying new knowledge
 - Creating anew
 - Reflecting on learning
